

Are you ready to embark on a thrilling journey as you approach the end of your academic journey or have just stepped into the professional world? Imagine being a part of a game-changing project that not only challenges your abilities but also leaves a lasting impression on your city.

In Rijeka Gateway, you can seize the rare chance to contribute to the construction of a state-of-the-art port facility that will make a huge economic impact on Croatia and the whole region!

Apply for the position of Civil Engineer Intern (m/f/nb)

If you are

- Fresh graduate or close to graduation in Civil Engineering
- You are fluent in verbal and written English
- You are an expert in Microsoft Office tools and AutoCAD

In Rijeka Gateway you will

- Give support to the project team in the terminal in line with the project's scope, timeline, quality, budget and objectives
- Work on a unique infrastructure project of building a container terminal
- Learn from senior Engineers and international experts
- Work in a multicultural environment and kick-off your global career
- Get a 1-year internship contract with the possibility of permanent employment after go-live

Don't miss out on this incredible chance and send us your CV or any other form of application to career@rijekagateway.com by 15/02/2024! We just might be waiting for YOU!

Our recruitment process

Please submit your application in English. If your profile matches the job requirements, our recruiter will get in touch to share more about the role and get to know you better. If successful, you will discuss the role with the Line Manager in detail. Every candidate will receive feedback.